People want to save, but they can't keep up

What young Nigerians are saving for Source: PiggyVest Savings Report 2025, via Nairametrics. Most of these goals need a lump sum.

Most goals need a lump sum. Lump sums are hard to get.

RENT

₦1.5M–₦3M

a year for a Mainland 1-bed. Landlords want 1 to 2 years upfront, plus 25–30% in fees.

WEDDINGS

~₦13M

the average young couple now spends (Cowrywise).

POWER

₦800K+

for an inverter and battery. A 5kW solar setup costs ₦2.2M–₦3.5M, and fuel is above ₦1,000 a litre.

BUSINESS

year-on-year rise in Google searches for "how to start a business with no money".

06 · WHAT THE DATA SAYS

And the credit options are broken

Banks

Only 4% of Nigeria's ~40M small businesses get bank loans. SME rates run 32–40%, with heavy collateral.

Family and friends

The biggest source of small business funding (38%), and it comes with strings and shame.

Loan apps

400+ registered apps, a long record of harassment and debt-shaming, and 1,500+ illegal apps shut down by the FCCPC.

Traditional ajo

Trusted, but you have to find your people, manage a WhatsApp group, and hope nobody runs off with the money.

07 · THE INSIGHT

Young Nigerians already think in lump sums, and already trust ajo.

What they lack is a safe, zero-interest way to get the money early. That's exactly what Circles is.

Zero interest

Get your lump sum or asset upfront, pay back monthly. No 30% bank rate, no loan app shame.

Ajo, fixed

No need to find your people, no WhatsApp group. Rank guarantees the payout if someone defaults.

Late slots earn

Collect later and get your savings back, plus extra on top.

December timing

January rent, wedding season, December restocking and Black Friday all land in the next six weeks.

Circles gives you the money for your next big move today, through a system you already trust, at zero interest.

11 pain points. One answer.

Every influencer and every ad set maps to one pain point. We pick influencers who already talk about that pain, so Circles shows up as the answer in a conversation they're already having, not as a random ad.

Pain points 1 to 6

#	PAIN POINT	LUMP SUM	INFLUENCER BOX	HOOK
01	Rent, the yearly lump sum	₦1.5M–₦3M+ plus fees	First-apartment creators, corpers, flatmate content	"You earn monthly. Your landlord wants yearly."
02	Moving out of your parents' house	Rent plus furnishing	Adulting and moving-out vloggers	"Your old room is not a five-year plan."
03	Starting a side hustle	₦50K–₦500K	Vendor and small business TikTokers	"Your hustle needs capital, not more motivation."
04	Restocking and growing a business	Working capital	Instagram vendors, market traders	"Restock for December. Pay back in January."
05	Solar and inverters	₦800K–₦3.5M	Work-from-home and home tour creators	"Stop buying fuel. Buy light once."
06	Phones and laptops as work tools	₦80K–₦280K+	Tech reviewers, freelancers, designers	"It's a tool, not a flex."

Pain points 7 to 11

#	PAIN POINT	LUMP SUM	INFLUENCER BOX	HOOK
07	A car, for the hustle or the milestone	Multi-million	Car vloggers, Bolt and inDrive drivers	"Drive your own car, not someone else's remittance."
08	Weddings	~₦13M average	Engaged couples, wedding planners	"Ajo was literally made for this."
09	Skills, certifications and bootcamps	₦250K–₦1M+	Tech career and "how I switched" creators	"Pay for the course now. Pay back monthly."
10	Japa	₦12M–₦20M (UK)	Career and diaspora debate creators	"Build here first."
11	Real estate	Plots from ~₦1.5M	Young homeowners, real estate explainers	"Stop paying rent forever."

On japa: our PR story is that young people leave because they can't get capital. So this runs as "the money you'd spend leaving could build something here", not as Circles funding relocation.

Ads on Google, Meta, TikTok and Snapchat

Week 1: one ad set per pain point. All 11 tested at low spend.

Then: the money goes behind the 3 or 4 angles with the lowest CAC.

Retargeting: everyone who engages with the virality play and the influencer content.

The rule: CAC reviewed weekly. Any angle above ₦2,000 gets cut. Ads stop on 20 December.

The ajo fallout everyone talks about

Samuel Banks and his friend group stage a public fallout: one friend ran off with everyone's ajo contribution, and they call each other out online. We push it across Instablog9ja, Tunde Ednut and the other big blogs, then reveal Circles as the fix.

DAY 1–2

Drop

The callout videos go up. The blogs pick it up.

DAY 2–4

Peak

The internet takes sides. Duets, memes and reaction videos.

DAY 4–5

Reveal

The group reunites: "This is why we use Circles now. Nobody can run away with the money. Rank guarantees it."

DAY 5–14

Ride it

Ads retarget everyone who watched. Influencers reference it. "Don't be like Samuel's friend."

Why it works: the story is the exact pain Circles fixes. Every Nigerian has an ajo-gone-wrong story, so the reveal lands as the solution, not a sales pitch.

The risks, and how we manage them

01

Backlash for faking it

Keep the beef short, with the reveal within 5 days. Make it obviously playful at the reveal, and never accuse a real outside person.

02

Compliance

As a CBN-licensed company, the script and reveal go through Compliance and ARCON rules before anything goes live. The paid partnership is disclosed at the reveal.

03

Blogs won't play along

Line up blog placements in advance as paid amplification, and have the reveal ready in case it leaks early.
