Your export covered 1 Oct – 10 Nov, so each ad set's week was worked out by subtracting the two weeks already reported. Spend counts up to the export date.

WHY + WHAT NOW

Spend went up. Orders didn’t.

We spent 68% more for the same 9 orders. Most of the extra went to one ad set that sold nothing.

I’ve requested ₦500K to fund Snapchat, so we stop relying on Meta alone.

PAUSE

LXN Green

₦293,400 and no purchases this week. It’s the biggest spend for nothing; move that budget to what’s working.

SCALE

Six Months Visitors

Back on top: 2 sales at ₦36,639 each, our cheapest. People who’ve visited before are the easiest to win.

EARLY

7 new product ads

Live since Friday. Linen, NOK and Mursi have 1 sale each (about ₦50K a sale). Linen BD, Pangolin, Sakoso and Akara have none yet. Judge them after a full week.

STEADY

New LXN + LXN Video

3 sales between them at about ₦75–79K each. Keep them on at current budget.

YEAR TO DATE

Since the ads started

Everything from Monday 19 October, the first week of the new plan, to Sunday 8 November. 3 weeks.

Every ₦1 on sales ads has brought back ₦3.01 in sales so far.

Week by week

Orders have held at 9 a week. CAC has doubled.

19–25 Oct	₦432,794	₦1,909,840	9	₦48,088	4.4x
26 Oct – 1 Nov	₦531,262	₦2,114,740	9	₦59,029	4.0x
2–8 Nov	₦914,872	₦1,622,900	9	₦101,652	1.8x
Total	₦1,878,928	₦5,647,480	27	₦69,590	3.0x
Weekly average	₦626,309	₦1,882,493	9	₦69,590	3.0x

WHAT IT SHOWS

Spend doubled across the three weeks but orders didn’t move. More budget isn’t buying more orders yet.

THE FIX

Cut what isn’t selling (LXN Green), back what is (retargeting), and add a second platform (Snapchat).

Klaviyo

A quiet email week

No email went to the full list, and email sold nothing. The week before, one offer to the list brought in ₦839K.

₦0

Personal note from Tolu: Abiola	1	Opened	0
Personal note from Tolu: Anthony	1	Opened	0

THIS WEEK

Send one email to the full list of about 2,700 customers, showing the new carousels for the products that are selling: NOK Stripe and LXN.
