NACK APPAREL · SOCIAL MEDIA REVIEW

BEYOND THE PRODUCT

Turning NACK from a brand people buy into a brand people belong to.

OVERVIEW

WHAT I NOTICED

Five themes from my research. Each one is a starting point for discussion.

01

IDENTITY

We show the product, not what the brand is made of.

02

PLATFORMS

One approach, copied across every channel.

03

CONTENT

No clear system, few creators, few collabs.

04

DATA

Possible leakage and no clear retention plan.

05

COMMUNITY

Followers, but not yet a following.

SHOW WHAT THE BRAND IS MADE OF

Right now the feed shows the product. People don't fall for a hoodie — they fall for the world around it.

MORE THAN A PRODUCT, THE BRAND IS

- The people who make it
- The process behind each piece
- The culture and city it comes from
- What it stands for

PUT PEOPLE AT THE CENTRE

Internal team story

WHO IS NACK?

Introduce the team — designers, stylists, packers. Faces and personalities build trust.

The work behind each piece

HOW IT'S MADE

Sketches, fabric, sampling, fittings, even the mistakes. It shows craft and earns the price.

Show people

WHO WEARS IT

Real customers in real life — not just products on a plain background.

02 · PLATFORMS

EVERY PLATFORM, ITS OWN STRATEGY

Same drop, different cut. Each audience comes for something different.

PLATFORM	ITS JOB	WHAT WORKS THERE
Instagram	Brand home & shop window	Lookbooks, carousels, Stories, behind the scenes
TikTok	Discovery & reach	Raw, fast, trend-led styling videos and UGC
X	Voice & conversation	Opinions, culture takes, banter with fans
Pinterest	Inspiration & search	Outfit boards that keep working for months
YouTube	Depth	Mini-docs, studio days, drop breakdowns

BRAND CONTENT & GROWTH CONTENT, SEPARATELY

BRAND CONTENT

Builds who we are

Looks like: campaigns, lookbooks, team stories, behind the scenes

Measured by: saves, shares, sentiment, follower quality

GROWTH CONTENT

Drives reach and sales

Looks like: UGC, hooks, try-ons, offers, paid ads

Measured by: clicks, cost per sale, return on ad spend

Mixing them waters both down. Plan, make and measure them on separate tracks.

EVERY ITEM GETS ITS OWN MINI CAMPAIGN

50%

UGC

Each piece gets its own small set of creators wearing it in real life. Trust and relatability.

50%

Growth content

Brand-made performance ads: strong hooks, product close-ups, offers.

4 STAGES OF CONTENT

Every drop moves through the same four stages, so nothing launches cold.

01

TEASE

BEFORE LAUNCH

Sketches, fabric close-ups, countdowns, sneak peeks.

02

LAUNCH

DROP DAY

Campaign shoot, lookbook, ads go live.

03

PROOF

FIRST WEEKS

UGC, reviews, styling videos, customer reposts.

04

SUSTAIN

ONGOING

Everyday styling, restock alerts, community features.

THE RIGHT FACES FOR THE CLOTHES

GUEST STYLIST

OKIRIKA BOY STYLES NACK

Bring in Okirika Boy to style selected outfits. Their styling eye shows the pieces can be mixed and worn many ways — and puts NACK in front of their audience.

ALWAYS ON

AN IN-HOUSE CREATOR

One familiar face on the team making everyday content: work fits, weekend fits, "how I'd wear it". Consistent, quick and cost-effective.

COLLABORATIONS ARE MISSING

Collabs borrow trust and reach from people our audience already loves.

CREATORS & STYLISTS

Styling series, takeovers, co-designed pieces.

CULTURE

Artists, musicians, photographers, events.

OTHER BRANDS

Capsule drops and co-branded pieces.

04 · DATA & RETENTION

ARE WE LEAKING DATA?

Every follower, DM and sale tells us something. If we don't capture it, we can't sell to them again.

WHERE IT MIGHT BE SLIPPING

- DM and WhatsApp orders with no record
- Links shared without tracking
- No email or SMS sign-up
- Ad pixels not set up properly

04 · DATA & RETENTION

WHAT'S THE RETENTION PLAN?

What happens after someone buys? A plan for the second order, not just the first.

AFTER PURCHASE

Thank-you message, care and styling tips.

EARLY ACCESS

Past buyers see new drops first.

REWARDS

Perks for repeat buyers and referrals.

WIN-BACK

A nudge when a customer goes quiet.

THEY NEED TO FEEL LIKE THEY'VE JOINED A CULT

Not customers. Members. Shared language, rituals, insider access, and the feeling of being early.

NEXT STEPS

LET'S DISCUSS

01 Agree the brand vs growth content split

02 Define the job of each platform

03 Pilot a mini campaign on the next drop

04 Shortlist collabs, Okirika Boy and an in-house creator

05 Audit our data and draft a retention plan
